

UU-SIKS Symposium "Knowledge Management for organizational dynamics"

To celebrate the public defence of the doctoral dissertation of Jurriaan van Reijssen Utrecht University in collaboration with the SIKS research school organizes the symposium "Knowledge Management for organizational dynamics on Wednesday, March 19th". During this symposium, both national and international scientists and practitioners in the field of knowledge management will present their recent research and experience in practice. Fruitful and engaging for both knowledge management professionals and researchers.

Participation is free of charge. There is a limited number of seats available. Please enrol via j.vanreijssen@uu.nl. You will receive a confirmation of your participation. The event is part of the Advanced Components stage of SIKS educational program

Program

- 11.00 - 11.10 Opening by chairman Prof. Sjaak Brinkkemper (Utrecht University)
- 11.10 - 11.40 Prof. Remko Helms (Utrecht University): "Knowledge Network Perspectives for Knowledge Management"
- 11.40 - 12.10 Prof. Marleen Huysman (VU University Amsterdam): "Enterprise Social Media: boosting and/or blocking knowledge sharing?"
- 12.10 - 12.55 Break/sandwich
- 12.55 - 13.25 Dr. Robin Teigland (Stockholm School of Economics): "Managing the Boundaries of a Firm-sponsored OSS Community and its Impact on Innovation and Absorptive Capacity"
- 13.25 - 13.55 Arjan van Unnik (Former Global Head Knowledge Management at Royal Dutch Shell): "Knowledge Management strategies in a dynamic practice – information centric versus knowledge centric"
- 13.55 - 14.25 Jurriaan van Reijssen (Utrecht University): "Release-Connect-Check-Repeat: How Knowledge Management advances dynamic capability"
- 14.25 - 14.30 Closing by chairman

Location

Kanunnikenzaal (1st floor), Faculty Club, Achter de Dom 7a, Utrecht.

A route description can be found via this link: <http://bit.ly/1bcZvpf> (location is accessed via address number 7a)